Wynn Nightlife shook up the music scene last week with the announcement of a three-year exclusive residency for Grammy-nominated pop-dance duo The Chainsmokers at XS and Encore Beach Club. But it was only the beginning: The new We Are Wynn Nightlife brand campaign also includes the unveiling of the 2017 resident DJ roster at those two Wynn/Encore venues, plus Surrender and Intrigue nightclubs.

Joining The Chainsmokers as new-to-Wynn acts are Cedric Gervais, Dimitri Vegas & Like Mike, Nicky

Romero, Laidback Luke, MAKJ, EDX and Lost Kings. Recent performers now confirmed as full-time Wynn residents are Alison Wonderland, Brillz, Chuckie, Duke Dumont, Getter, Robin Schulz, the Stafford Brothers and Sultan & Shepard.

Add these new artists to an all-star stable of returning DJs and performers—Alesso, A-Trak, David Guetta, Dillon Francis, Diplo, DJ Snake, Floss-tradamus, Major Lazer, Marshmello, Ookay, RL Grime, Skrillex, Slander, Virgil Abloh and Yellow Claw—and Wynn Nightlife has once again set the pace on the Strip.

“We are happy that so many incredible artists are returning—many have been with us five, six or seven years—and are excited to welcome the newly-signed residents,” Alex Cordova, Wynn Nightlife executive vice president and managing partner, said in a statement. “With our carefully curated roster, we provide the most stylistically diverse music lineup in town, positioning us as the leader in Las Vegas nightlife entertainment.”
